“I know which is my favorite and I can’t wait to see if it is the winner,” stated Jim Telleys, president of Spectra Home. “We were honored to be named the top upholstery and accent chair supplier in the Reader Rankings Awards. To show our appreciation, we are donating to The Common Thread for The Cure Foundation for every accent chair entry received in the Great Accent Chair Challenge. Come try out the chairs and cast your vote for a good cause.”

“We are proud to be a continued supporter of the Common Thread for the Cure Foundation because it aids those in our industry battling breast cancer,” Telleysh continued. “So many of us have friends and family members who have had to deal with breast cancer and the financial stress it causes. To help more, we are also donating a portion of the proceeds from the Tamara Day by Spectra Home collection to the Foundation. We hope that our support will ease the burden that families are experiencing.” The Foundation supports individuals fighting breast cancer affiliated with the design and furnishings industry by offering financial assistance through confidential grants. The grants are intended to enhance the quality of life and can be used to meet any financial obligations, household needs, and transportation to medical appointments.
