THE ART OF THE DETAIL: SHERRILL FURNITURE EMPHASIZES CRAFTSMANSHIP & TAILORED FINISHES AT HIGH POINT MARKET

Hickory, N.C., April 2026 — At the April 2026 High Point Market, Sherrill Furniture spotlights a refined design direction rooted in craftsmanship and subtle detail, with tape border tailoring emerging as a key expression of this approach. Once a hallmark of traditional upholstery, this tailored accent is reinterpreted across Sherrill’s latest introductions as a sophisticated way to bring structure, definition, and polish to modern silhouettes.

Applied with precision and restraint, tape border detailing serves as a quiet but impactful design element, outlining forms, emphasizing clean lines, and elevating the overall composition of each piece. Across sofas and accent seating, the detail reflects Sherrill’s ongoing commitment to craftsmanship that feels both timeless and relevant.

“We’re seeing a renewed appreciation for craftsmanship that feels intentional but not overworked,” said Tom Zaliagiris, vice president of sales & marketing for Sherrill Furniture. “Tape border tailoring is a subtle detail, but it has a powerful impact. It defines the silhouette, elevates the design, and speaks directly to the artistry behind each piece.”

New pieces being introduced this Spring balance relaxed comfort with tailored precision, demonstrating how understated details can transform everyday upholstery into something distinctly elevated. By revisiting this classic technique through a contemporary lens, Sherrill continues to bridge heritage and modern living.
