

PRESS RELEASE

Art Addiction Introduces High Point's Largest Art Collection Ahead of Furniture Market

High Point, NC

Art Addiction has expanded its gallery presence in High Point, now with the largest art gallery in the city with more than 30,000 images in the collection.

The updated space comes in time for High Point's Furniture Market and it provides designers, buyers, and visitors with a central destination to explore a wide range of artwork in one location.

The gallery features a diverse selection of styles and formats, ready to support large scale design projects and individual buyers. Artwork is also available for retail purchase. Visitors of the High Point Furniture market are invited to experience the Art Addiction Gallery.
