

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

High Point's largest-ever art showroom

High Point, North Carolina — 4/20/2026

New York-based Art Addiction, known for its in-house production of artwork, is in a new High Point showroom at 315 South Elm Street. At over 16,000 square feet, the building is High Point's largest ever art showroom. See artwork from a collection of over 30,000 images at 315 South Elm this spring at High Point Furniture Market.

With fully in-house production, Art Addiction offers unmatched flexibility in sizing, materials, and customization—making it an ideal partner for high-volume commercial and residential design projects. Additionally, Art Addiction's full collection is now available for retail purchase.

Buyers can preview the collection at High Point Market or explore selections online at artaddictioninc.com

All Art Addiction products are designed, manufactured, and shipped in the U.S.
